What’s on this Autumn?

Exhibition: Joanne Simpson, 27 October – 17 November, The GALE Centre

We’re delighted to welcome back local artist Jo Simpson for another exhibition of her paintings at The GALE Centre!

‘My exhibition at the Gale Centre will focus on my current work; painted local scenes, animals, beach comb drawings, flowers and Folk art style paintings.

I paint predominantly in Acrylic but open to using all media. I tend to have several styles of working but my most recognisable style is naïve and a little-quirky. I use this style when creating made up compositions reflecting memories of a certain time, place or mood. At present these are based on the West Highland coast. I also paint local scenes, wildlife, seascapes and pet portraits. I love using bold colours and texture in my work. I exhibit in galleries and attend markets/craft fairs regularly to sell my work.’
